Kick off!

The Bundesliga Highlights - Matchday 20

Tue 25.01 16:30 - 17:00 30 min

The stadiums may be empty but the league is in full flow! In the previous five games, last-placed Fürth have collected more points than third-placed Leverkusen. Meanwhile, Bielefeld in 16th took more points than Union in 5th. The only sides in somewhat consistent form are Bayern and their hunters Dortmund, who face fourth-placed Hoffenheim. Well worth a watch on matchday 20's edition of Kickoff.

This enables programs to be assigned a genre classification. There is an automatic classification for „Sport“, „Cinema“ and „Series“.

- Directly from the Guide view: Long press AUDIO - you can change the genre classification manually on a rolling basis. Note to IanL-S: confirm how this works!

- Using the HELP opens a sub-menu for genre classification selection.

Here you can change the classification by a long press of the corresponding digit (0-9) (the list of possible selections is in the legend).

You can define program filters using the „GuideFilter.txt“ file. The file must be placed in the SmartEPGvu+ settings folder.

If you create the GuideFilter.txt file and write one or more lines with search texts (including ? and *), these programs should disappear from the guide within 3 seconds. The text must be lowercase. An exception are umlauts (ü,ä,ö..), since the wizes-Python cannot handle them and therefore they must be in the correct upper/lower case.

In addition, in the GuideFilter.txt you can use „t“, „b“ and „e“ at the beginning of the line to control whether the event name or its short or long description should be searched. Note for IanL-S: confirm EPG categories for Beyonwiz. If this letter is not specified, the search continues in the name.

„t “ = Text

„b “ = Description and

„e “ = Extended information - Note: All „shows“ that do not have extended information will then be filtered.

For example: b sheldon will filter all „shows“ that contain Sheldon in the short description.

If genre classifications have been made, you can switch the filter of the automatically grouped classifications with the yellow  key :

- None
- User defined
- Entertainment
- Information

The groups are predefined as follows:

- Entertainment: SERIES, CINEMA, CRIME, SHOW, KIDS
- Information: DOCU, NEWS, SPORT, REPORT

In this example, t sturm was defined as the filter in the GuideFilter.txt file. You can see that in contrast to the representation: No filter, here the show „Sturm der Liebe“ was filtered. Note to IanL-S: not consistent with screen shots

The Power of Undercover Agencies
Wed 26.01 02:15 - 03:00 45 min

The last time intelligence agencies commanded as much power as they do today was during the Cold War. Technological innovations mean that more sophisticated warfare is now a reality. It is not just about Russia and the USA anymore. We may be entering a new era of unrest.

The U.S. has lost more spies and informants since 2010 than at any other time since the Cold War. Leaders of German intelligence agencies also acknowledge that they have once again fallen upon tough times. Money, data and access are proving
